

Jehovah's Witnesses Focus on World Peace

John P. Sutherland, chairman of the forthcoming international convention of Jehovah's Witnesses, said this week the eight-day convocation scheduled for the Rose Bowl will place the spotlight on unity.

The Rose Bowl gathering is expected to be the largest convention ever held by the religious group. More than 36 nations and all 50 states will be represented. The Torrance congregation will send 119 delegates to the Pasadena site.

"Everlasting Good News" is the theme of the international convention, reports Sutherland.

The assembly is actually being held in 24 different cities over a period of 10 weeks.

The program will focus on the major problems faced by mankind around the world. The group will concentrate on solutions which are of an individual nature.

"The assembly program will also highlight a discussion of the Bible's place in the space age," Sutherland said.
